Saturday, September 29, 2012

11:00 a.m. (walk start time)
9:15 a.m. (run start time)

Meet on the Oval in front of DHC at 10:15 a.m.

Subway sandwiches provided

We had a lot of fun last year, and the Missoula Heart Walk/Run is a good way to meet other Honors students, faculty, and staff. Join our team and help us take steps to build healthier lives free from cardiovascular disease and raise funds for life-saving research and education. See Team Captain Andi at the front desk of the DHC right away, or email her at andrea.armstrong@mso.umt.edu, for more information on how to sign up. There is no fee to participate in the Heart Walk, although contributions are encouraged.

The course for the 5K run will begin and finish on the UM Oval, offering views of campus and the Clark Fork River in between. The top finishers in each of seven age divisions, as well as the overall men’s and women’s winners, will receive prizes in the timed event.

The race fee is $20, and participants can register at http://www.missoulaheartwalk.org.

Still Accepting Senior Project Proposals

Students who are planning to graduate this year should submit a senior project research and presentation proposal. These proposals were due Monday, September 17, and are still being accepted for consideration through the end of September. If you have not already done so, please meet with James McKusick, Laure Pengelly Drake, or Erin Brown Saldin as soon as possible to discuss the project requirements and your plans.

Hardcopies of the required form are available in the DHC office, and you can find it online: http://www.dhc.umt.edu/current_students/student_forms.cfm#honorsresearch.
Students who are planning to graduate in 2013-2014 should confer during this academic year, the earlier the better.

Still Accepting DHC Graduation Checklist
Seniors who intend to graduate Spring 2013, Summer 2013, or Autumn 2013 should come to the DHC office to pick up a DHC Graduation Checklist and to make an appointment for a graduation meeting with Karen Kaley. The purpose of this meeting is to assist graduating seniors in reviewing their requirements to graduate as a "University Scholar" from the DHC. The DHC Graduation Checklist must be completed right away for Autumn 2012, by October 4 for Spring 2013, by February 7 for Summer 2013, and by April 7 for Autumn 2013. The form is posted here: http://www.dhc.umt.edu/current_students/student_forms.cfm#seniorgraduation
Note: Don't forget that you must also apply for graduation from The University of Montana. Applications are available online. For further information: http://www.umt.edu/registrar/Forms1.aspx

Student Coordinator Position in the OCE Open
Looking for a rewarding job on campus? The Office for Civic Engagement is currently accepting applications to fill a student coordinator position in the office. The position is responsible for coordinating the K-5 Tutor Program. The student coordinator will work with local school teachers and principals to identify elementary classrooms in need of volunteer tutors, and recruit UM students to serve as tutors. It is a great way to get experience working in the elementary school system and helping young children. This is a work-study position. Please contact Colleen Kane, colleen.kane@mso.umt.edu if you are interested in applying.

New Course on the Financial Debacle
Open to DHC students
Davidson Honors College students of all majors are invited to enroll in BMGT 491.02, The Financial Debacle of the Last Decade: Winners and Losers (1 cr.), MW 9:40-11:00 a.m., October 1-31 (2nd 5-week block) this autumn semester. (No permission required; register on CyberBear.) This combined undergraduate/graduate course, taught by former president of the University of Montana, George Dennison, and Mick Seidl, a businessman and former CEO, will explore the recent recession of 2007-09, the worst the U.S. has experienced since the Great Depression of the 1930s. The effects of the “Debacle” persist even today, with high unemployment, slow GNP growth, a struggling housing market, and a Washington political process in gridlock. The widely held assumption by Wall Street, commercial bankers, mortgage brokers, home builders and insurers, of ever-escalating real estate prices in the U.S., provides the formal explanation for the "Debacle." How and why did this gross assumption become a "religion" to so many in the financial markets? What incentives drove the creation of artificial securities loosely based on piles of doubtful mortgages? Who, if anyone, got rich from the “Debacle”? What role did government play in the mess? Where did greed fit in—home buyers, home owners, speculators, financial institutions? Today, who bears the burden of the “Debacle,” long after the housing market crashed—the unemployed, the middle class, welfare recipients, college grads looking for jobs? What can we learn from the “Debacle” about efficient capital markets, the role of regulation in financial markets, the role of business in American society, and the relationship between the business community and the political process in American society? What can we say about the long-term prospects for the U.S.?

DHC students can register for the course on CyberBear. Non-business majors require permission to enroll; contact Dawn Hambrick, Graduate Programs Coordinator, GBB 329, dawn.hambrick@business.umt.edu. For a sample course syllabus, contact Andi Armstrong in the DHC.

Scribendi Publishing Opportunity

Deadline October 15

Have you ever thought about having your work published in a nationally distributed fine arts and literary magazine—and being paid $250 for doing so? If so, you’re in luck: it’s that time of year again as Scribendi, the fine arts and literary magazine of the Western Regional Honors Council (WRHC), gears up for another issue!

We are reaching out to the bright, diverse body of Honors students at your WRHC member institution—students like you who exemplify a fascinating array of talents and interests, both academic and creative. It is Scribendi’s honor to showcase your work, and as such, we are seeking original submissions in the categories of short fiction, creative nonfiction, poetry, visual art, photography, digital art, and foreign language. (It is worth mentioning that WRHC awards $250 to the top submission in each of these categories (excluding foreign language.).)

This year we’ve established a new category, “Open Media.” Our goal here is to publish works that fall outside the confines of our other submission categories. We’re seeking imaginative, innovative, nontraditional works—anything and everything from choreographed dance pieces to architectural sketches, from film to music, from pottery to performance art, from to fashion to graphic novels. You name it, and if we like it, we’ll publish it!

Furthermore, while we remain committed to the incomparably tangible experience Scribendi offers, we are excited to announce that this year’s issue will be published in both hardcopy and digital formats. A digital version of Scribendi has the potential to broaden your work’s audience to an international arena and will better showcase the new Open Media category.

Undergraduate Research Awards

These programs are intended to provide selected students (sophomores through seniors) the opportunity to spend the spring semester planning and carrying out their own research project with the guidance of their faculty mentor. The annual application deadline is October 29 for spring semester scholarships. An application form can be found on the DHC website: http://www.dhc.umt.edu/scholarships/dhc.cfm#undergraduateresearch
